Total number of ECTS credits		12
Type		External Academic Internships
Temporal organisation		Year 4; Annual
Modality		Face-to-face
Language		English
Contents	The subject will be completed by the student at an internship centre during the final two semesters of the study programme, putting into practice all the knowledge, competences and skills specific to the Bachelor Bachelor Degree in Psychology. Students will carry out their internships in one of the institutions or centres related to the subjects that make up the specialisation taken (in this case, Specialisation in Psychosocial Intervention or Specialisation in Psychological Assessment and Intervention). To ensure the proper development of the subject, an academic tutor and a tutor at the internship centre will be assigned. Both will be responsible for supervising the student's work, enabling the student to approach professional reality in a guided way and ensuring the acquisition of the knowledge necessary for proper professional performance. The centres have, at minimum, a psychologist to tutor the students.
DEGREE learning outcomes of	Skills and abilities	HD1 Use assessment instruments appropriate to psychological, emotional, cognitive and behavioural characteristics.
